What is WCA's

PROTOCOL?

WCA hosts protocol for all high school students. Underclassmen participate in one and upperclassmen in the other. Protocol is a formal evening which changes year to year but always serves as an opportunity for students to practice polite manners, relating respectfully to one another, and furthering friendships. Events in the past have included eating dinner at a nice restaurant, attending performances at Playhouse Square in Cleveland, having dinner at school served by staff, and folk dancing.
